PRESS RELEASE

AXA Assistance Launches New Division

“Solutions“ optimises clients’ business planning

Munich, 5 December 2005 --- With the introduction of the wide range of services encompassed in its new “Solutions“ division, AXA Assistance Germany will now support the business planning, development and growth of companies. The new division will be subdivided in three areas: AdvoSolutions, CorporateMobilitySolutions and CorporateMediSolutions.

AdvoSolutions is the ideal way for companies to gain access to the extremely competent legal know-how of AXA Assistance Germany. From setting up a claims department to liability regulations, AdvoSolutions covers all legal eventualities. Even outsourcing an entire legal department is no longer a problem with the highly professional services of AdvoSolutions.

CorporateMobilitySolutions is AXA Assistance Germany’s means of supporting internationally active companies in dealing with expatriate stays of their employees. This service stretches from the move abroad, organisation of intercultural training or expert consultation at the target location to tax or social matters. In addition, CorporateMobilitySolutions will always be available for these employees in case of emergencies.

An ideal addition to help companies achieve optimum staff care for expatriate employees is CorporateMediSolutions. Here, employees find the best possible support in all medical areas. Medical treatment, operations or even repatriations, which might become necessary, are handled reliably through new CorporateMediSolutions.

“With our know-how in the fields of assistance and insurance for international corporations and medium-sized companies, we have developed a range of attractive complementary service offers as “Solutions”, which provide companies with a decisive competitive advantage: satisfied clients and employees through a great depth of support and service. The first of our partner companies have chosen to take advantage of “Solutions”, and our team of consultants is on hand to develop a customised service together with new partners”, explains Martin A. Weintz, spokesperson for the board of directors of AXA Assistance Germany.
